Great news!

As promised, the book you have all been waiting for has arrived from the printer. This beautiful full-color book briefly tells of our parish's history dating from 1887 and , then it quickly moved on telling us how our new church came to be . . . with hundreds of full-color pictures telling the story. This books is more than 200 pages long and it comes to us in both English and Spanish.

Our committee members will be stationed outside the church by the trinity circle to help you get your copy. Be sure to stop by the table out front to get your copy after Mass. Don't wait too long. These will go fast.
